

ADVANCING THE RESEARCH AGENDA FOR FINANCIAL INCLUSION

A JOINT WORLD BANK-CEGA RESEARCH WORKSHOP ON FINANCIAL INCLUSION:

Join us for a workshop hosted by the World Bank and the University of California at Berkeley's Center for Effective Global Action (CEGA) that will bring together researchers and public and private sector practitioners to assess what we already know, identify critical gaps in knowledge, and seek out shared research priorities for the future.

TUESDAY, JUNE 28, 2016

9:00am to 6:00pm

World Bank J Building, B1-080
701 18th Street NW
Washington, DC

#WBCEGA16

To register or request more information, please contact
Chat Quiroz at mquiroz@worldbank.org

WORKSHOP SESSIONS:

Where We Are, Why It Matters, What's next to achieve Universal Finance

Rebecca Mann, Gates Foundation
Kay McGowan, USAID
Ceyla Pazarbasioglu, World Bank
William Maloney, World Bank

Mobile & Global: Making Payment Systems Work Better

Billy Jack, Georgetown
Tarek Ghani, Princeton
Simone Schaner, Dartmouth
Maria Teresa Chimienti, World Bank

Promoting Savings Among The Poor

Paul Gertler, University of California Berkeley
Arun Chandrasekhar, Stanford
Xavi Gine, World Bank
Douglas Pearce, World Bank

Measuring Financial Inclusion

Leora Klapper, World Bank

Ensuring Access, Insuring Stability: Promoting Protection from Risk

Shawn Cole, Harvard Business School
Craig McIntosh, University of California San Diego
Jishnu Das, World Bank
Fiona Stewart, World Bank

Helping the Poor Gain Access to Credit

Aprajit Mahajan, University of California Berkeley
Cynthia Kinnan, Northwestern
Bilal Zia, World Bank
Jennifer Chien, World Bank

Delivering Financial Services to the Poor

Mark Pickens, VISA
Carlos Cornejo, Mastercard
Shivani Siroya, Inventure
Jose Sanin, Groupe Speciale Mobile Association
Marcos Brujis, International Finance Corporation