Symposium Agenda
Thursday, April 15, 2010
Bancroft Hotel, UC Berkeley

Opening Remarks
1:00 p.m.  Robert Price, Associate Vice Chancellor for Research, UC Berkeley
Edward Miguel, Faculty Director, CEGA & Professor of Economics, UC Berkeley

Film Screening
1:15 p.m.  “A Call to Action”
Documentary by Eugenio Polgovsky

Session I  Treating Children for Parasitic Worms: An Educational Imperative
1:30 p.m.  “The Problem, The Scope, A Solution”
Don Bundy, Lead Health and Education Specialist, World Bank
2:00 p.m.  “How Research Reframed the Issue”
Michael Kremer, Professor of Economics, Harvard University
Edward Miguel, Faculty Director, CEGA & Professor of Economics, UC Berkeley

Session II  Evidence to Action: Scaling Up School-based Deworming
2:30 p.m.  “Global Action to Expand Deworming”
Lesley Drake, Executive Director, Deworm the World
3:00 p.m.  “Building a Sustainable Program: Deworming in Kenya”
Margaret Ndanyi, Head of School Health and Nutrition, Ministry of Education, Kenya
Karen Levy, Regional Director for Africa, Deworm the World
3:30 p.m.  Coffee Break

Session III  New Low Cost, High Impact Technologies for Global Health and Education
3:45 p.m.  “Chlorine Dispensers: A Solution for Clean Water”
Amrita Ahuja, Center for International Development, Harvard University
4:15 p.m.  “Cement Floors: How Slum Upgrades Improve Cognitive Development”
Paul Gertler, Professor of Business and Public Health, UC Berkeley

Closing Remarks
4:45 p.m.  Alissa Fishbane, Deputy Director, Deworm the World
Temina Madon, Executive Director, CEGA, UC Berkeley